Marriage in High Life.

Miss Mollie Morton is married. Whatever of disappointment this announcement may bring to a world of admirers, including Grand Duke Alexis himself, and others of equal standing, it is true nevertheless, and Louisville has contributed another of her fairest daughters to the elevation of St. Louis society. J. B. C. Lucas, Esq., one of the wealthiest and wealthiest of St. Louis business men, was the fortunate gentleman who won the prize. His princely fortune can hardly balance the wealth of beauty and pure loveliness of his bride. To be the wealthiest young man in St. Louis, which is true of the groom, is but a fair offset to the honor which the bride has won for years as the belle of Louisville. But the gentleman is not without a comeliness of person himself; no more is the bride without a liberal share of the world's goods. These minor points being equal, the more important one of congeniality—the families have been associated for several generations—comes in to confirm the alliance, and to secure a measure of happiness that is seldom enjoyed by parties who marry in haste and without knowledge of the relations they are forming.

The ceremony took place at the Cathedral at 9 o'clock. Bishop McCloskey officiating, assisted by Fathers Dunn and Baxter, in the presence of the largest audience ever assembled to witness a marriage ceremony in Louisville. The church was elegantly and profusely decorated with evergreens, rare plants, blooming flowers and costly floral displays. Over the altar and reaching the entire half circle of the chancel, were the words, burning in gas jets, "Gloria to God," while hundreds of jets and candles illuminated, in the richest and most dazzling splendor, the chancel and the church. No such decoration and illumination has ever been witnessed in Louisville, we believe, the scene surpassing the "glory" of the Cathedral on last Easter Sunday.

Although the bride party was nearly half an hour behind the time appointed—half past 8 o'clock—the large audience did not grow impatient, for the sweetest music was furnished by Scheuler's orchestra of eighteen instruments. The following first young men of Louisville officiated as ushers: George H. Hall, James Peter, James F. Buckner, Jr., John Coleman, W. H. Hudson, John S. Noyes, John W. Drummond and James H. Johnson, of St. Louis.

There were no bridesmaids. The ushers preceded the bride party, as the custom, the bride being escorted by her uncle, Dr. David Cummins, while her mother and the groom followed. At the altar they were met by the officiating bishop and priests before named, and the impressive ceremony of the Roman Catholic Church was briefly performed.

The middle portion of the church had been reserved especially for the invited friends, and a more fashionably-dressed audience, representing more fully the wealth, intelligence and beauty of Louisville, has rarely assembled in this city. The dresses worn by many of the bride's most intimate friends were rich and beautiful beyond description. Those who were present at the church, many of whom have been present on similar occasions in years past, testify that it was the most recherche affair that has taken place here within their recollection.

After the ceremony there was an informal gathering of the friends at the elegant and spacious residence of Dr. Cummins, and this was a joyous occasion. An elegant supper was served accompanied with the popping of champagne corks and select music by Scheuler's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas here received the congratulations of a host of friends, a number of his relatives and friends having come over from the future capital to witness his marriage. The hearty verbal congratulations of the majority of these present were perhaps no less acceptable than the numerous bridal presents from others, a partial list of which only theretop was enabled to obtain:

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, case of spoons and forks, 61 pieces.
Mrs. Lucas, elegant and costly silver service, 7 pieces.

Mrs. Wallace, sugar and cream set.
Miss Lizzie L. Johnson, salt set.
Mad. F. Luuk, satin fan and embroidered bow.

Misses Hattie and Nannie Johnson, 1 dozen gold butter dishes.
Mrs. Frank Bull, lace set.
Mrs. Morton (bride's mother), silver porte mounaine.

Mrs. Ferguson, basket of flowers.
Mr. Joseph D. Lucas, case of knives (pearl) forks and spoons.

Miss Johnson, elegant French clock.
Mr. John W. Drummond, pyramid of flowers surrounded by gold fish.

Mr. John B. Firth, set of ice cream spoons.
There were other elegant presents besides the costly diamonds and other gifts to the bride from the groom.—Courier Journal.

Sensible Card from a Colored Conservator.

To the Editor of the Pet.sburg Index Appeal:
In your paper of August 4th reference is made by your Richmond correspondent of a card from Rev. J. H. Holmes and Rev. M. Derrick, avowing their allegiance to the radical party. If these gentlemen had their race at heart, they would come out from the corruptions of the party of plunder and robbery, and stand with the white people of the South who are the true friends of the colored race. We can never have peace and prosperity in the South until the white people and the colored people made common cause of it, and I here say that it is the duty of every good man to labor to force every carpet-bagger to leave the South or retire from the leadership of the colored people. I hope in the Fourth District, Mr. J. J. Jones will be taught a lesson that will send him where he belongs. I understand that the two Richmond ministers referred to were compelled to come out in a card by their people. Pay for them. The colored race is doomed to destruction if they are not rescued from the hands of these bad men who have come South to plunder and not for the public good. The white people of the South are the true friends of the black, but when we see men like Messrs. Holmes and Derrick come to the party whip, I exceedingly fear for my race.

J. W. DUNGE.

MEDICINE.

Simmons' Liver Regulator

For all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.

After Forty Years' trial it is still receiving the most virtuous testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility.

It is eminently a Family Medicine, and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and money.

DOCTORS' BILLS.

Your Regulator is one of the best family medicines I ever used. I have not spent one dollar for my family for medicine in five years, only for your Regulator, and must say it does all it says it will. You can also recommend it in Colic for Stomach, it having cured a fine male of mine worth five hundred dollars.—(J. A. Nelson, Macon, Ga.)

The Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

If you feel DULL, DROWSY, DEBILITATED, have frequent Headache, Mouth Fastens badly, poor Appetite and Tongue Coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.

"Occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect."—(Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Governor of Alabama.)

"Your Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am persuaded it is a valuable addition to the medical science."—(Gov. J. Gill Shorter, Ala.)

"I have used the Regulator in my family for the past seventeen years. I can safely recommend it to the world as the best medicine I have ever used for that class of diseases it purports to cure."—(H. F. Thigpen.)

Baltimore Episcopal Methodist.

This medicine is acknowledged to have no equal as a Liver Medicine, containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail.

Lady's Endorsement.

"I have given your medicine a thorough trial, and in no case has it failed to give full satisfaction."—(Ellen Meehan, Chatham, Ga.)

Professional.

"From actual experience in the use of this medicine in my practice I have been, and am, satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine."—(Dr. J. W. Mason.)

Florida M. E. Conference.

"I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it an invaluable remedy. It has not failed to give relief in any instance."—(Rev. W. F. Easterling.)

Prestiding Oglethorpe College.

"Simmons' Liver Regulator is certainly a specific for that class of complaints which it claims to cure."—(Rev. David Wills, my 11)
